BATTLE ZONES

Battle Zones is a new series examining warfare from ancient to modern times.

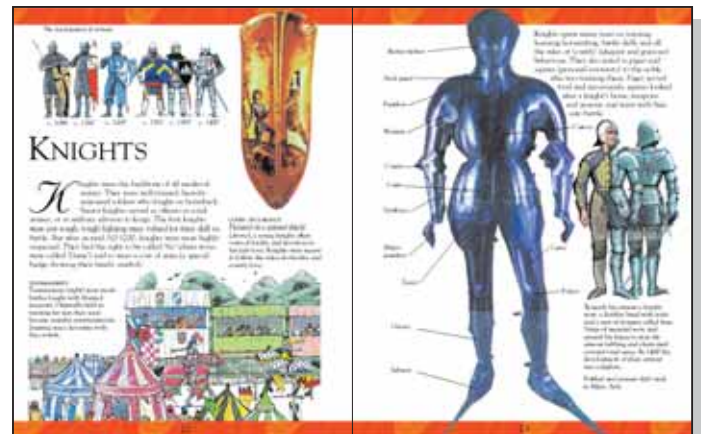

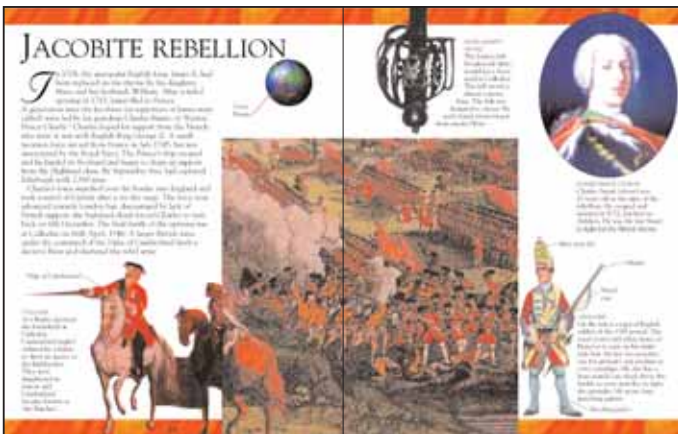

Four comprehensive titles explore the major conflicts through the ages and chart the dramatic changes in the way wars were fought. The books approach their subject from multiple perspectives, including military organisation technological development and political cause and effect. They deal with battles on land, in the air and at sea, from bloody civil wars to conflict on a global scale.

Titles include:

Warfare in the Ancient World • Warfare in the Middle Ages
 Warfare in the 20th Century • Warfare in the 16th to 19th Centuries

282mm x 219mm • 48 pages • full-colour artwork and photographs • glossary and index • 8-12 years
