ABOUT THE TITLE:

- This series steps back in time and explores particular historical events through the eyes of someone involved in the action.
- Readers can learn all about what it was like to be a medieval knight, a viking explorer, or part of a castle seige, through booklets that describe a dramatic narrative as it unfolds.
- Superb full-colour illustrations create a vibrant and engaging title, perfect for either home or school.
- Gatefold and split pages reveal fascinating behind-the-scenes details.
- Includes four small, six-page booklets pasted into the main book.
- 'True or False' questions with answer section at the end.
- Padded cover with gold foiling.
- Glossary and index.

THE CHRONICLES AND CODEX AND THE NATIONAL CURRICULUM:

- Content is appropriate for Key Stages 2 and 3 History.
- Fulfils criteria for Key Stage 2 World History, 'demonstrating concepts in an engaging manner'.
- Helps achieve the goals of the Scottish Standard Curriculum 5–14, promoting 'positive attitudes to learning', 'knowledge, understanding and appreciation of the world' and 'skills in literacy'.
